

WAGGA WAGGA
CIVIC THEATRE

WELCOME TO

wagga wagga ngurang Wiradjuridya ngurambangga.

| Place of dance and celebration all together on Wiradyuri country.

Traditional landowners, the Wiradjuri people, have travelled the region for thousands of years following the cycle of ceremonies and seasons. Today, our city remains an ideal meeting spot, with new experiences and events to take part in. We are an ideal destination for industry, education, innovation and future leaders to smaller community gatherings and markets.

Wagga Wagga is the largest inland regional city in New South Wales, with more than 66,400 residents calling it home.

We have a variety of accommodation options, from boutique hotels to self-contained apartments, we welcome more than 1.3 million visitors each year who come to explore our city and surrounds. Our city is shaped by the river and connected by pathways. Bring your own kayak and paddle around the Murrumbidgee River or peddle on your bike and explore our iconic landscapes.

The Civic Theatre opened in 1963 and went through a major upgrade in 2001. In 2018 there were further refurbishments including new seating in the auditorium and a foyer revamp. The Balcony now has an extendable cover with built in lighting. We have a wide range of performances that visit the theatre throughout the year, including our annual subscription season, touring shows, conferences, and community events. The theatre seats 491 and it is the largest theatre venue in town.

WIFI

There is free WIFI throughout the Venue for use of touring companies.
